style guide

rev 04/2014

a. black button-up shirt
current, sexy and understated.
year round versatility in an affordable package.

b. chalk stripe apron
betty crocker would never be seen in this apron! 2 pockets.

c. fashion denim
just like your favorite
pair of jeans,
because frankly they
are your favorite pair
of jeans.

d. black non-slip
shoes
safety first!

a. black button-up shirt

strong in tradition. modern in style. stay comfortable and look sharp in a shirt that will withstand the elements of the restaurant.

- fitted button down collared dress shirt
- solid black including buttons
- sleeves must be rolled to right above elbow

style notes:

shirt should be impeccably clean and pressed for each shift.

if an undershirt is worn, it should be black, v-neck, and unnoticeable.

shirt must be long enough to tuck into jeans.

cotton/polyester blend.

* see restaurant manager for shirt options available on online company store

b. chef wear chalk stripe bistro apron

this apron is whimsical (and slimming with vertical stripes!!) .....while giving a nod to our focus and commitment to food quality with the chefwear logo.

- black and white striped apron
- 2 pockets

style notes:

apron should be impeccably clean and pressed for each shift.

only items in apron pocket should be 5 kona grill pens, wine key, lighter, and server book.

additional check presenters should not be kept in apron pockets.

apron should cover the belt/buckle. Belt should be solid black leather – no embellishment or oversize buckle.

length of apron should be mid shin or above but at least 2 inches below the lowest point of your knee.

apron can be rolled or hemmed to the appropriate length. *if you have the apron hemmed the chefwear logo will need to be removed and re-attached.

apron should be tied above the belt buckle.

if apron is tied in the front it needs to be tucked underneath the apron.

*apron should be washed in COLD water only with NO bleach.

c. dark denim jeans

nothing says classic and modern like dark indigo denim.

- straight, classic, bootcut or relaxed fit. no slim or skinny fit.

style notes:

jeans should not be rolled or cuffed

jeans with holes are not acceptable

no elaborate stitching or embellishment on the pockets each restaurant will be provided with a fabric sample – all denim should be at least as dark as the sample, if not darker.

d. black non-slip shoes

a modern classic.

- shoes must be all black including laces and sole
- must be slip resistant
- can be found at www.shoesforcrews.com, payless, walmart, or other department stores

style notes:

laces need to be clean, black, and not frayed.

not scuffed. **magic eraser works great for cleaning the rubber on the shoes.

grooming standards

take pride in your appearance. that appearance goes beyond clothes; it includes your personal hygiene and a maintained presence throughout your shift.

- hair must be clean and well maintained. hair below the shoulders must be tied up or pulled back.
- extreme hair styles or colors are not acceptable.
- facial hair must be neat and well-trimmed. you are not permitted to grow out facial hair while working.
- tattoos must be unobtrusive and in good taste or completely concealed.
- deodorant is required. a limited amount of light cologne or perfume is acceptable.
- tasteful jewelry, not excessive.
- no facial piercings, no spacers.
- fresh breath.
- finger nails well maintained, no flashy nail polish, no chips.
